

Muslims from around the world travel to Mecca to do the pilgrimage every year, they circle Kaaba which is Islam's most sacred site and take part in a series of practices to bring more .humility and unity among all Muslims

The hajj is one of Islam's pillars, it is required of each Muslim at least once in a lifetime. Muslims seek to deepen their faith through the hajj, they ask Allah to forgive them, especially when they are at Arafat mountain on the day of Arafah, so Allah (SWT) forgives them by his .great mercy

The journey of hajj is a spiritual journey, when all Muslims gather in the same place without any differences between them, rich and poor, white and black, Arabic and foreign, they feel .the greatness of the Islamic religion, and the justice of God Almighty
